PÁGINA 1: MARCO CONCEPTUAL & COMPRENSIÓN LECTORA

1. Fundamentación Teórica

We use the Simple Present tense to communicate actions we perform regularly, such as habits and daily routines. When writing sentences in the simple present, it is essential to pay close attention to the subject pronoun. For the third person singular (He, She, It), we must apply the spelling rules to the verb, usually adding '-s' or '-es' at the end (e.g., 'I wake up' vs. 'She wakes up').
